

ERASMUS+ Strategic Partnership “Ancient Cities”

European Winter School in Paris

26/02 – 02/03/2018 — Galerie Colbert, room Jullian (1st floor)
2 rue Vivienne – 75002 Paris

	Morning session 9:30-12:30	Afternoon session 14:00-17:00
Monday 26/02	Welcome session Presentation of the project (S. Feuser, Kiel) What is a MOOC? Digital learning today (A. Gallo & A. Tzortzi, DSI-UN Paris 1)	Politics in the City Greek citizenship (A. Duploux, Paris 1) The structure of Roman society (S. Malmberg, Bergen)
Tuesday 27/02	Life in the City At Home in Rome (S. Malmberg, Bergen) Houses and Society (M. Zarmakoupi, Birmingham)	Who owns Antiquity? The Parthenon marbles (A. Zambon, UVSQ) Projection of the documentary ‘Lord Elgin and some stones of no value’ (1988)
Wednesday 28/02	Infrastructure and Economy Harbours and Ports (S. Feuser, Kiel) Manufacturing and Retail (M. Zarmakoupi, Birmingham)	Death and Religion Funerary Sphere (M. Blömer, Aarhus) The Artemis-Procession in Ephesus (S. Feuser, Kiel)
Thursday 01/03	Project meeting / Students working on their assigned task and visit to the Louvre
Friday 02/03	Debriefing with students	Visit to the Sorbonne (14:30) and its library (16:00)

NB: Free admission to the Louvre without queuing for a ticket (valid ID or proof of entitlement required) for all 18-25-year-old residents of the European Economic Area (EU, Norway, Iceland, and Liechtenstein).